Sixth Annual Art Festival/Sale at Farmer & Frenchman

Sponsored by Ohio Valley Art League

Ohio Valley Art League presents this annual event in partnership with the Farmer & Frenchman Winery.

Area artists are invited to participate in an art festival/sale in the barn at Farmer & Frenchman Winery Saturday, July 9, 2022 from 1pm to 6:30pm. Artists interested in booth space should fill out the form below and return to OVAL by email along with two images of their artwork to be displayed. There will be limited space available. Booth space is approx. 8'x8' and is an empty space. Artist will need to provide whatever is needed to display their artwork, i.e - table, chairs, portable hanging system, easels, etc. The artists will be notified by Ohio Valley Art League via email if they are approved for a space. Those artists who are notified to display their artworks will pay a setup fee of $30 to Ohio Valley Art League. All mediums are eligible (photography, pottery, paintings, collage, mixed media, etc). The barn is air-conditioned and artists may set up on Saturday morning between 10:30am-noon.

Artists may purchase food and drink during the day and evening from the cafe.

Fill out form below and return via email to OVAL along with two images of your artwork - sam@ohiovalleyart.org
