Juror

Mary McNamee Bower

Mary McNamee Bower was appointed The John Streetman Executive Director of the Evansville Museum of Arts, History & Science in 2018 after serving as Interim Director, Chief Curator and the Virginia G. Schroeder Curator of Collections with the museum. A graduate of Illinois State University, Bower began her work with the institution in 1978. She is a member of the Evansville Commission for Public Art and the Advisory Council for the University of Southern Indiana's College of Liberal Arts. She previously served as a member of Historic New Harmony's Collection Review Committee; as a Reitz Home Preservation Society Trustee, chairing the Curatorial Committee; and on the Boards of Directors of the Association of Indiana Museums and the Arts Council of Southwestern Indiana. She received the prestigious 2014 Mayor's Art Award for her service to the community in promoting the arts and was named one of Evansville's Top 20 Women in Business by the Junior League of Evansville in 2020.
