

Juror, Julie Schweitzer

Julie Schweitzer is the visionary, artist, and Executive Director of ArtSeed, Halo ArtSeed Community Gallery, and Bourne – Schweitzer Gallery. She has been actively involved in the development of the regional arts community for over 30 years. She enjoys seeking new challenges and strives to develop, implement, and build cross institutional relationships. She works tirelessly and is a resource for local universities, public schools, organizations, businesses, and the metro area. She has cultivated an excellent working relationship with local, regional, national, and international arts programs and media. These relationships have enabled the funding of arts programming through grants, corporate, and private donors, the creation of innovative programming, international recognition and the advancement of the regional arts community. She has been involved in the acquisition, creation, and installation of multiple public artworks in New Albany including: Barney Bright's "Winged Man" at Second Baptist Church, Barney Bright's "Landscape" in Bicentennial Park, Brad White's "Scribner History" in Scribner Park, New Albany High School Sculptures located at I-64, YMCA, and Second Baptist Church.

OVAL - Ohio Valley Art League is funded in part by the Kentucky State Arts Council.

This exhibit is funded in part by the Henderson Area Arts Alliance.
